Supplementary Fig. 2. DWI performed 5 days after left carotid endarterectomy. DWI shows diffuse hyperintense lesions along the left hemispheric cortex on the B1000 map (arrows), equivocal low signal intensities in the left temporo-occipital cortex on ADC map, and subtle high signal intensities on the B0 map in the corresponding area. ADC: apparent diffusion coefficient.